The right side of the page features a series of horizontal lines, each with a handwritten signature or set of initials. The signatures are written in black ink and vary in style, including cursive and block letters. Some signatures are partially obscured by large, bold scribbles. The names of the attendees listed on the left are written in a smaller, simpler font. The overall appearance is that of a formal record of attendance, where the handwritten entries serve as verification of the presence of each individual.
